

Eucharistic Apostles of The Divine Mercy (EADM)
Divine Mercy

Mission: Inviting all on our journey of LOVE through Jesus' Divine Mercy.

Position: Leadership Team Members (Facilitator):

Required Characteristics/Skills:

*Be a person of prayer: It is vital for each member to pursue and maintain a sacramental life through partaking of the Eucharist and Reconciliation and be a person of prayer. See attached list of EADM recommendations for daily prayers and practices.

*Be articulate and comfortable in speaking and guiding people through the cenacle process as presented in the Formation Manual.

Specific Responsibilities:

*Come prepared to cenacle by studying the assigned readings in the manual, Catechism of the Catholic Church, Sacred Scripture, and the Diary of Saint Faustina Kowalska.

*Be able to guide EADM members through the sharing and prayers of the cenacle session.

*To develop their own spiritual life, and the ability to promote the spiritual development of the cenacle members.

*To keep cenacle members on the study topic with love, understanding and flexibility. Shy members must be encouraged and respected, and extroverted members must be encouraged to share the discussion time with others; creating a warm, accepting, open climate for cohesiveness within the cenacle.

*To help the fellowship grow in the knowledge of Catholic teaching and the message of Divine Mercy so as to integrate these in their daily life.

*To help the different members develop and rotate responsibilities, i.e; keeping in touch with sick members and their needs, preparing formation materials/questions to be shared, coordinating the group's project, etc.

(Taken from the Cenacle Formation Manual)

I have read and understand the requirements of this position and Agree to perform them to the best of my ability.

Print name: _____

Signature: _____

Date: _____